> Re: Notice of Abuse and Defamation

> Dear Ms. Forte,

> Please be advised that we represent Vision Media TV Group, LLC (VMTV). VMTV is a reputable company possessing an A- rating by the South Florida Better Business Bureau. Moreover, VMTV is headed by professionals with 22 years of award-winning television production experience. Occasionally, VMTV, like many other high-profile companies, is affronted by unwarranted criticism which rises to the level of defamation. Unfortunately, one such circumstance has developed on your web site. Several postings falsely accusing VMTV of being a scam have appeared on your site. In accord with your "Legal Stuff" page, we are hereby notifying you with regard to the abuses taking place via your service. Per your invitation, we respectfully ask you to review our company and to take the defamatory posts down. We will go one step further and invite you to get out of the cold, visit our offices here in South Florida and see for yourself that we are in fact a reputable company.

> We understand the intricacies of the Communications Decency Act and the arguably limited immunities provided by Section 230 therein. While we are continually developing new legal procedures to remedy the costly wrongs which occur daily on the internet, we are also quite familiar with the vagaries and expenses of litigation. Hence, experience has taught us that all parties are best served by amicable resolutions to matters like this. Therefore, rather than entering immediately into an adversarial posture with you and your company, we would, at this juncture, propose a peaceful, inexpensive and fair resolution. Please check out our company, visit, or call us if you like, and then promptly take down the defamatory posts within 5 business days. Alternatively, please forward us the identities of the posters immediately. Should you have any questions or comments regarding this or any other matter, please feel free to contact us.

> Sincerely,

> Lee Levenson, B.S.C.S., LL.M., J.D.
