

An Evening With International Water Frontliners

Friday Nov. 12,
2004
6:00-8:00 PM

The American
Baptist Seminary

2606 Dwight Way in Berkeley

A Benefit for the Ghana National Coalition Against Privatization of Water

Public Citizen invites you to an evening of celebration and solidarity with water activists from around the world on Friday, Nov. 12, 2004. The evening will honor water organizers from Bolivia, Ghana, Guam, Detroit and California who will share stories of their struggles for clean and affordable water.

There will be a short discussion session, followed by a reception with delicious African food and music.

Honored Guests

- Mawuli Dake
Member of the Ghana National Coalition Against Privatization of Water
- Marcela Olivera
Key international liaison for the Coordinadora de Defensa del Agua y la vida, leaders of the Cochabamba water revolt
- Sabina Perez
Organizer against the privatization of water in Guam
- Maureen Taylor
Director of the Michigan Welfare Rights Coalition
- Paola Ramos
Representative from the Environmental Justice Coalition for Water

$10-25 suggested donation, no one turned away for lack of funds.
American Baptist Seminary is located opposite People's Park, one block east of Telegraph.

These activists will also be speaking at a workshop from 1:45-3:45 PM on Saturday at the Race and Public Policy Conference. See www.arc.org.*

For further information please contact Public Citizen California
(510) 663-0888 or Maawuli@yahoo.com