

Politicians, Polluters & Payback:
 Campaign Contributions Since 2001 by Major Companies Benefiting from the MTBE Product Defect Liability Waiver AND $2 Billion in Taxpayer Subsidies for
 "MTBE Transition Assistance" in the Energy Bill

Company	Total Campaign Contributions to All Federal Candidates	% to GOP	Addendum: Amounts just to:			Total to "MTBE 3"
			Rep. Tom DeLay	Rep. Joe Barton	Rep. Billy Tauzin
El Paso Corp (Houston, TX)	$ 2,017,314	80%	$ 70,000	$ 19,205	$ 20,000	$ 109,205
Lyondell (Houston, TX)	382,050	64%	25,500	25,500	14,000	65,000
Valero/Ultramar (San Antonio, TX)	528,100	67%	12,500	11,000	13,500	37,000
ChevronTexaco (San Ramon, CA)	1,448,781	75%	11,500	8,500	5,500	25,500
ExxonMobil (Irving, TX)	1,305,996	91%	7,075	4,000	6,000	17,075
Shell (The Hague, Netherlands)	230,635	72%	5,000	2,000	4,000	11,000
ConocoPhillips (Houston, TX)	538,943	82%	1,000	1,500	3,000	5,500
Sunoco (Philadelphia, PA)	281,710	64%	-	2,000	2,500	4,500
Unocal (El Segundo, CA)	72,250	88%	2,000	-	1,500	3,500
Amerada Hess (New York, NY)	204,220	7%	-	-	-	-
Citgo (Caracas, Venezuela)	38,100	67%	-	-	-	-
Total	$ 7,048,099	76%	$ 134,575	$ 73,705	$ 70,000	$ 278,280

SOURCE: Compiled by Public Citizen, January 2004, using data from the Center for Responsive Politics and the Internal Revenue Service, www.citizen.org/cmep