

Public Citizen Media Coverage on Medical Malpractice January 1 – October 29, 2003

The following media appearances by Public Citizen were generated by reports we have released, talk shows we have appeared on, and through extensive consultation with reporters. These do not include media appearances that were missed because of the limits of Westlaw searches (which also do not pick up broadcast news stories). These do not include many editorials and news stories that we have influenced, but in which we are not specifically mentioned.
