PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR COMPLIANCE
PLAN AND STATUS CONFERENCE

Plaintiffs seek an order requiring FEMA to provide a plan to comply with the Court's Order of November 29, 2006, and setting a status conference with the Court at the earliest available time to discuss FEMA's proposed plan.

The Court ordered that FEMA "immediately" restore housing assistance benefits to the affected disaster victims. Plaintiffs have contacted FEMA's counsel every business day since the Order was issued, but FEMA has failed to provide plaintiffs with any information concerning what steps, if any, FEMA is taking to comply with the Order. Unless FEMA is ordered to produce a specific compliance plan by a date and time certain, plaintiffs will remain unable to determine whether FEMA is complying with November 29 Order. Once FEMA submits a compliance plan, a status conference should be convened to discuss the plan and determine whether any adjustments to the plan are necessary.

Respectfully submitted,
