

Protest against the Trans-Pacific Partnership Agreement, Ritz Carlton Hotel Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, December 5, 2011

“This morning at 10.30am about 200 hundred of PLHIV and the Coalition Against FTA protested against the 10th round of TPPA talks at the Ritz Carlton Hotel in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. We tiredly chanted in front of the main entrance of the hotel and waited for 2 and half hours to hand over the memorandum to the U.S chief negotiators. They refused to come down until two of us managed to go up to meet the Barbara Weisel, the U.S chief negotiator.”

—Edward Low, Positive Malaysian Treatment Access and Advocacy Group (MTAAG+)

Malaysian politicians speak to the activists.

