

XFINITY Connect

hermannlawoffices@comcast.net

± Font Size ±

Re: Motion to Quash Subpoena Issued by Thomas M. Coolely Law School

From : Richard Huffaker <richard@weebly.com>

Tue, Aug 09, 2011 02:42 AM

Subject : Re: Motion to Quash Subpoena Issued by Thomas M. Coolely Law SchoolTo : hermannlawoffices@comcast.net

Hi John,

Sorry, I've been buried in work. I can barely describe how much time I've been spending in the office.

You can consider the subpoena squashed at this point. I'll keep you informed of the situation.

Let me know if you have any questions!

Richard

On Aug 5, 2011, at 11:11 AM, hermannlawoffices@comcast.net wrote:

Tricia/Richard

I have attached a copy of the motion filed by John Doe 1 seeking to quash the subpoena issued to Weebly in connection with information requested by the Plaintiff, Thomas M. Cooley Law School relating to an online web log hosted by and individual associated with the name "Rockstar05." Accordingly, please refrain from releasing any information relative to the subpoena until further notification from the court. Please advise that you have received my correspondence and that there will be no action to divulge the information. Thank you for your anticipated cooperation.

John T. Hermann
Attorney at Law
2684 West Eleven Mile Road
Berkley, MI 48072
248-591-9291
248-591-2304 fax
Hermannlawofficers@Comcast.Net
