

NUCLEAR POWER PLANTS PROPOSED FOR TEXAS

Reactor Site	Company	# of Units	Status
Comanche Peak 3200 MW Total	Luminant Citizens petitioned to intervene on 4/6/09	2 US-APWR Not certified by NRC or built anywhere in the world	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Combined Operating License Application (COLA) submitted 9/19/08; Design certification scheduled to be complete in 2011. ▪ Public meeting held 6/12/08 & Environmental Scoping meeting held 1/6/09 in Glen Rose ▪ Oral Arguments on contentions held 6/10-11/09 ▪ Atomic Safety and Licensing Board ordered hearings on 2 contentions raised by Intervenors. ▪ Reactors would cost up to $26.7 billion.
South Texas 2600 MW Total	NRG Energy – San Antonio’s utility – CPS Energy is a partner. Citizens petitioned to intervene on 4/21/09	2 ABWR Up for re-certification by NRC in 2010	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ COLA submitted 11/07; Application not docketed due to Missing Safety Information; SEED Coalition filing resulted in a year long suspension of licensing process ▪ Initial EIS Scoping Meeting has been held ▪ City of Austin decided not to participate in the project ▪ City of San Antonio has spent $280 million, but recently postponed vote for $400 million due to CPS hiding $4 billion cost increase ▪ Oral Arguments on contentions held 6/23-24/09 ▪ Atomic Safety and Licensing Board ordered hearings on 5 contentions raised by Intervenors. ▪ Reactors would cost up to $22 billion.
Victoria Was 3070 MW Total Now 2700 MW Total	Exelon COLA Withdrawn	2 ABWR Scrapped ESBWR design.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ COLA submitted 9/3/08. ESBWR Design not certified and never been built anywhere in the world. ▪ Public meeting held 8/7/08 ▪ Reactors would cost up to $22 billion.
Amarillo	Amarillo Power	2	No COLA Submitted yet.

Source: Nuclear Regulatory Commission web site, with SEED Coalition commentary