

The People Shaping Trump's Inauguration

Despite Candidate Trump's Pledge to "Send the Special Interests Packing," Trump's Inaugural Committee Is Packed With Corporate Insiders

By Rick Claypool, a Public Citizen research director

Jan. 19, 2017 – As a candidate, President-Elect Donald Trump railed against the “rigged political establishment” and promised to “drain the swamp” and “send the special interests packing.”<sup>1</sup> But the incoming administration’s Inaugural Committee suggests the entrenched establishment of corporate interests and Republican big money donors will have significant influence over the incoming administration. We have previously investigated the corporate connections of Trump’s transition team<sup>2</sup> and cabinet nominees.<sup>3</sup>

Below is a list of Trump’s inaugural committee members<sup>4</sup> and a brief documentation of these members’ corporate ties. These are the individuals who are largely responsible for soliciting donations, and also are likely to have made donations themselves.<sup>5</sup>

CHAIRMAN

Thomas Barrack, Jr. heads the inaugural committee and is the committee’s primary spokesperson. A “California a private equity real estate investor,”<sup>6</sup> Barrack founded the $34 billion firm Colony Capital,<sup>7</sup> which recently completed a merger with NorthStar Asset Management, making the merged $58 billion dollar company the fifth-largest real estate management firm in the world.<sup>8</sup> Barrack has contributed $214,436 to political candidates and campaigns since 1992, mostly favoring Republicans.<sup>9</sup>

FINANCE CO-CHAIRMEN

Roy Bailey is a partner and managing director of Giuliani LLC, the consulting firm founded and led by former New York City Mayor Rudy Giuliani. Bailey also is a former finance chairman of the Republican Party of Texas.<sup>10</sup> Bailey has contributed $49,093 to Republican political candidates and campaigns since 1992.<sup>11</sup>

Lew Eisenberg is a Goldman Sachs alum and a co-founder of Granite Capital International Group, a hedge fund.<sup>12</sup> Eisenberg is under consideration to be Trump's ambassador to Spain.<sup>13</sup> He contributed $19,400 to Republican candidates and campaigns since 1994.<sup>14</sup>

FINANCE VICE-CHAIRS

Sheldon Adelson and Dr. Miriam Adelson contributed $5 million toward Trump's inauguration.<sup>15</sup> A major Republican donor with a net worth of more than $31 billion, Sheldon is chairman and CEO of Las Vegas Sands, the largest casino corporation in the U.S.<sup>16</sup> Miriam, Sheldon's wife, is a medical doctor.<sup>17</sup> The Adelsons have spent more than $176 million supporting Republicans and conservative candidates and causes since 2012.<sup>18</sup>

Brian Ballard is a Republican fundraiser and lobbyist who heads Florida-based firm Ballard Partners.<sup>19</sup> Ballard was the Trump Organization’s lobbyist in Florida for several years.<sup>20</sup> He served as Trump’s Florida finance chairman, and was a major fundraiser for Sen. John McCain in 2008 and Gov. Mitt Romney in 2012.<sup>21</sup> Ballard has contributed $402,133 to Republican candidates and campaigns since 1999.<sup>22</sup>

Gentry Beach is a co-director, along with Trump sons Eric and Don Jr. and Tommy Hicks, of Opening Day, a Texas nonprofit that was criticized for auctioning access to Trump’s sons as a fundraiser.<sup>23</sup> Beach sued, and was counter-sued by, his former employer, hedge fund Touradji Capital Management.<sup>24</sup> Beach contributed $5,000 to the Republican National Committee in 2016.<sup>25</sup>

Elliott Broidy is CEO and chairman of Broidy Capital Management.<sup>26</sup> Broidy pleaded guilty to a felony corruption charge in 2009. “Broidy paid nearly a million dollars in bribes to get a quarter billion dollar investment,” said New York Governor Anthony Cuomo in a statement.<sup>27</sup> He is a former finance committee chairman for the Republican National Committee. A tongue-in-cheek “autobiography” on Broidy’s web page states, “All actions of this political fundraiser show that he will willingly break the law and sacrifice basic moral norms for the sake of financial gain. In fact this is how Broidy operates in most of his business dealings.”<sup>28</sup> Broidy has contributed $439,649 to political candidates and campaigns, mostly Republicans, since 1992.<sup>29</sup>

Robert Grand is a lawyer and partner at Barnes & Thornburg, a corporate law firm whose past clients include Bank of America, McDonald’s, Walgreen Co., and TASER
