DONT BUY INTO THE LIES, July 2, 2014

By Anthony

This review is from: W700 Thermogenic Hyper-Metabolizer by Ubervita (Health and Beauty)

This product trash save yourself the money and buy something else It was such a waste of money don't let the those 5 star reviews fool you!!! Trust me buy something else instead and you'll be thanking yourself later( if you really want to know tho I've been on it for almost 3 weeks and for some reason these pills made me hungrier (or I guess just didn't suppress my hunger at all) also I never felt any energy whatsoever... honestly I feel like they're just trying to fake you out so you can have a placebo effect kinda like when they give sugar pills to patients who can't afford certain medications but they believe that their medication will work and boom they're healed.

Notice to Ubervita Customers:

This review and the accusations made are not factual, and we will construe them as libel against our company and its products. All Ubervita reviews are 100% real. We NEVER pay or bribe customers, employees, or associates for a 5-star review. We never ask customers to leave a 5-star or a positive review. We always ask for honesty when you give feedback on our products.

Since becoming the best-selling Thermogenic, we have been the victim of a rash of cyber-attacks, and identity theft. On July 2nd, 2014 we filed suit in Federal Court in Washington State to subpoena various websites for the identities of our attackers. The attacks have gone far beyond these anonymous bad-mouthing and fake 1-star reviews. While we won't elaborate on that issue here, you can Google it or search the Justia.com legal search engine website to see it. It was just filed today, so it may take a few days to propagate those search engines.

To our attackers: you should probably stop before you get into a lot of legal trouble. These dirty tricks are not going to work in the long run.

By casimiro

Verified Purchase (What's this?)

This review is from Ubertest All Natural Testosterone Booster for Men By Ubervita (Health and Beauty)

Very Disappointed! !!! I was hoping this product was what the review claim it was but turned out to be a Fraud. I don't know how this product got all this good reviews. iBe aware!

I had my doubts because ( 1st ) of the high % of 5 stars reviews it has. U will find that no product in amazon has so many 5 star reviews. And (2nd) cause D-Asparic Acid is the main enzymes that trigger the cells to start producing more Testosterone and This Product don't have D-asparic acid in it. I used it exactly as directed and it didn't do a thing for me. Take this from someone who used other T-boosters before and is able to notice the difference. Big waste of money. I wish I had my money back!!

 This review is from: Ubertest All Natural Testosterone Booster for Men By Ubervita (Health and Beauty)
 This product is pure snake oil, don't waste your money. They claim "Scientific studies prove that the ingredients increase T-levels naturally!" Really? Please show us these studies. Won't even list the ingredients, which should be a massive RED ALERT to anybody thinking about buying this crap. No telling what's in this junk. If you think you have low testosterone, go see a doctor and get the real thing. Insurance typically covers it.

Ubervita LLC says:

And yes, we do take these attacks on our company very seriously. Since we sell a product which people put into their bodies, we do not take libel lightly.

Think before you throw out baseless accusations and untrue statements. You have the freedom of speech, but you do not have the freedom to say things that are blatantly untrue.

To real customers; sorry to sound so harsh, but we have been receiving multiple attacks on our product per day from a competitor. This has been well documented and is now in the courts, and being investigated by Amazon. Justice will be served.

★☆☆☆ Hasn't done a thing for me either after 1 week ..., July 6, 2014

By R. Riffer

Verified Purchase (What's this?)

This review is from: Ubertest All Natural Testosterone Booster for Men By Ubervita (Health and Beauty)

Hasn't done a thing for me either after 1 week. I'm not even clear what the proper dosage is. On the box it says take 1 capsule before activity, do not exceed more than 1 capsule in any 12 hour period. On the bottle, it says take one capsule 3 times dally, do not exceed more than 6 in any 12 hour period! This, and the fact it hasn't done anything for me, I AM ASKING FOR A REFUND! Also, highly suspicious reviews, which I realized after purchase.

It is totally useless. I have tried many other products and this is by far the worst. If you check other 5 star reviews, you will notice that they are fake. made by people that has review only this product and one after another. Amazon should take an action on this seller.

Notice to Ubervita Customers:

This review and the accusations made are not factual, and we will construe them as libel against our company and its products. All Ubervita reviews are 100% real. We NEVER pay or bribe customers, employees, or associates for a 5-star review. We never ask customers to leave a 5-star or a positive review. We always ask for honesty when you give feedback on our products.

Since becoming the best-selling Thermogenic, we have been the victim of a rash of cyber-attacks, and identity theft. On July 2nd, 2014 we filed suit in Federal Court in Washington State to subpoena various websites for the identities of our attackers. The attacks have gone far beyond these anonymous bad-mouthing and fake 1-star reviews. While we won't elaborate on that issue here, you can Google it or search the Justia.com legal search engine website to see it. It was just filed today, so it may take a few days to propagate those search engines.

To our attackers: you should probably stop before you get into a lot of legal trouble. These dirty tricks are not going to work in the long run.

*****NOTICE MOST 5 STAR REVIEWS HAVE ONLY REVIEWED THIS PRODUCT*****

I have slowly moved from 1 with each meal up to 4 with each meal. Clean meals and cardio at the gym, no extra weight has been lost. I was losing 1-2 lbs per week. After 3 weeks with this "supplement," there was no discernible increase in weight loss, even at 4 pills. It seems there are some "motivated" reviews on here.....All you can do is try it yourself, but I am now much more skeptical of reviews on Amazon. Especially after the recent reports of paid reviewers.....

Anyone skeptical of my review can contact me directly at vmfitco@gmail.com. The product comes with a card that boasts a free bottle. When you email ubervita they ask you to review the product on Amazon, which is totally fine! Of course the catch is anything under a 5 star isn't going to get a free bottle.

So because you are getting one star reviews, you have attackers? Please give me a break! Jesus couldn't get all 5 stars reviews even if he tried. You say all the one star reviews sound the same, well so do the 5 star reviews, I suppose we should discredit those reviews too? Your product was not worth 5 stars to me and it is extremely sketchy. Sue whoever you want, but my review was 100% real and you are slandering me by saying it's a fake review. I should sue for the stomach pains I had after taking this horrible product. The product did not do as described.

Verified Purchase (What's this?)

This review is from: W700 Thermogenic Hyper-Metabolizer by Ubervita (Health and Beauty)

i have used many products, and very rarely get side effects to them. this product make you so jittery, and your heart hurt so bad that your face begins to burn. have not lost a pound, i work out and eat very clean this product was to assist with the weight that is just too stubborn to shred off natural ways. huge rip off, just a heads up the company is not real, try looking them up. its almost like its amazons personal weight loss product. now if that the case you can see why there is 4-5 stars. its a huge rip off, dont waste your money.

Notice to Ubervita Customers:

This review and the accusations made are not factual, and we will construe them as libel against our company and its products. All Ubervita reviews are 100% real. We NEVER pay or bribe customers, employees, or associates for a 5-star review. We never ask customers to leave a 5-star or a positive review. We always ask for honesty when you give feedback on our products.

Since becoming the best-selling Thermogenic, we have been the victim of a rash of cyber-attacks, and identity theft. On July 2nd, 2014 we filed suit in Federal Court in Washington State to subpoena various websites for the identities of our attackers. The attacks have gone far beyond these anonymous bad-mouthing and fake 1-star reviews. While we won't elaborate on that issue here, you can Google it or search the Justia.com legal search engine website to see it. It was just filed today, so it may take a few days to propagate those search engines.

To our attackers: you should probably stop before you get into a lot of legal trouble. These dirty tricks are not going to work in the long run.

Thanks for your patience and understanding,

I took this for 3 weeks, and had no results. No change in appetite, focus, or weight. Despite the number of good reviews, I can promise you it will not work.

Ubervita LLC says:

Dear Customers,

This review is extremely untrue and qualifies as libel. Our reviews are from real people who love our products.

Please ignore the anonymous bad-mouthing which is most likely a competitor. We offer a 100% satisfaction guarantee if you are not happy for any reason, so there is absolutely no explanation for this negativity other than a jealous competitor.

Thanks,

Tom
